NEWSLETTER FOR THE PARISH OF ROOS

November 2022

EDITORIAL

The countdown to Christmas has started with a few dates already in our events diary.

We are planning a bumper Christmas edition of the Rooster so if you have a Christmassy contribution of any type - event, story, activity etc please email us roosternews22@gmail.com.

SPACES AVAILABLE AT ROOS SCHOOL

Spaces are currently available in our nursery and FS2 classes. Please contact the school office for information or let us know of anyone who may be interested.

Could local families, who are wanting their children to attend Roos C.E VC Primary School, please contact the school on 01964 670 535.

A SNAPSHOT OF LEARNING

As part of the curriculum, during Design and Technology lessons, our year 6 children have been baking bread. They then got to taste their bread and evaluate their baking skills.

ROOS SPRING & SUMMER SHOW

It's been a few months now since we all met at the Roos Summer Show and we'd like to thank you all very much for turning up, bringing along your favourite fruit and vegetable exhibits, showing your amazing floral displays and presenting all your crafty makes. Seriously, thank you. We cannot do any part of the show without your generosity of time and enthusiasm.

It might seem a bit early to talk about planning for our 2023 Spring show but I've recently noticed that many of my local shops all have affordable packs of daffodils, narcissi and lots of other Spring flowering bulbs on offer and it has put me in mind of our next important date for the diary, 1st April 2023 - not just a fool's day next year! It would be great if we could encourage more of you to contribute to one or more of the available classes, this is a call out to any kids out there too, especially those that haven't joined in with us just yet, we would love you to.

Maybe you could grab a few of those packs of bulbs and plant up a patch of garden, they really are the easiest thing to grow. If you pop them in now and cover them over then you'll be rewarded in February or March time with some gorgeous flowers. Honestly it couldn't be easier.

Any later flowering ones can be entered into the Summer Show on 8th July. Can you task your kids with growing a few bulbs of their own maybe? And then they can show them at the playing fields next Spring. Keep an eye on the Rooster, because I'll be presenting some step by step photos to help kids plan a few entries of their own. I'll show how simple it is to make a floral display (and how to make

ROOS BINGO

A little update on this as we didn't quite get the organisation details right in the October Rooster - whoops, sorry!

The Bingo is run by Debbi Palmer, along with Zoe Stathers. Ian Young does the calling with Zoe Podmore being the stand-in caller.

Linda Cooper is the ticket seller and usually organises the refreshments. It's a monthly event on the second Tuesday and the prize category varies each month.

We are very grateful to everyone who lends a hand in the running of the Bingo - dates for future bingo nights are in the events diary on the back page.

Our October bingo at The Memorial Hall was almost at capacity. It was the busiest we've seen it since we took over.

As a result of the increased attendance we were delighted to donate the newly formed Eastfield Community Lounge Committee £100 to help them with their redecorating costs.

ROOS JUICE COMING SOON

Members of the Roos Woodland Group (RWG) were out in force during October picking apples to make their popular Roos Juice.

Apples were collected from their own trees planted 10 years ago as well as many donated by villagers in Roos, Tunstall and Halsham.

Varieties have such wonderful names as Dog Snout, Hornsea Herring, Dr Kidd's Orange Red, St Edmund's Pippin, Katy, Fiesta and of course the famous Bramley.

The apples are processed, pasteurised and bottled by Side Oven Bakery at Foston on the Wolds, near Driffeld.

Madge Moore, Chair of the Roos Woodland Group said: "It's been a bumper year for apples and it's great that our own trees are now contributing to the juice. However we couldn't make this great product without numerous generous donations and our great band of volunteers who go out and pick the apples".

The RWG were also helped by volunteers from the Tweenykes Sixth Form as part of their Duke of Edinburgh Award. The children also took away apples to sell as part of their enterprise activity.

Juice will be available by the end of October from Madge Moore on 07951 153 238 or mooremargery@gmail.com, Roos Village Store, Halsham Waterside or Melbourne Butchers.

REMEMBER, REMEMBER THE 5TH OF NOVEMBER

We all worry about our pets during firework time, but have you thought about wild animals?

For hedgehogs an unlit bonfire is a five star hotel with an unlimited buffet, a hedgehog will enter a bonfire to sleep. Their natural reaction to danger is to curl up so risk being burnt alive or getting badly burnt. If you are going to have a gathering with a fire consider other options - an off ground fire pit, a fire bin or only build the fire the day you are lighting it, any fires that have been around for a few days then check them before lighting.

Have you considered helping more with hedgehogs?

Become a volunteer with Holderness Hedgehog Hospital, there are several roles that you could help with. Do you have space in your shed or garage for a cage to become a foster carer - full training to be given. Emergency drivers are needed to collect hedgehogs that require care and taking to an assessor or vet.

Fund raising, as a charity we rely on donations, visit our Christmas Fair - details in the events diary, back page.

Could you have a hog house in your garden? Could you put food and water out each night to support hedgehogs that are released after receiving treatment?

Leave an area of your garden wild, hedgehogs use leaves etc to build their nest. Have a hole in your fence/gate to allow them to travel between gardens - they cover large areas in their search for food and mates.

Hedgehogs can swim but struggle to climb out of ponds, ensure you have a ramp or stone stairway they can use, cover open drains.

Shown in the photo are three siblings which were rescued as tiny babies, they were cared for by a volunteer until they reached a good weight, and then released into two wonderful gardens in Roos.

ALL SAINTS' CHURCH ROOS

We are very pleased to say that the interior walls of the church are in the process of being painted and the giant cobwebs are being removed from the ceiling. This has been a big undertaking involving large amounts of scaffolding but from what we can see so far, the end result is going to be amazing!

Our Harvest Family Breakfast Service held in the Memorial Institute was very successful. Cereal, fruit, toast and bacon sandwiches were on offer.

The children enjoyed the craft activities and Deacon Diane Berry led a short and very informal service of harvest thanksgiving.

A similar Family Breakfast Service is scheduled for Sunday 6th November, 10am in the Institute. We will be making poppies in preparation for the Remembrance Sunday service the following week. All are most welcome to attend. There is no charge for the breakfast although a donation can be left.

We are still awaiting the outcome of the consultation regarding the reorganisation of the South Holderness Deanery. For now, our services are being led by various local Priests and Deacons overseen by Rev. Alisdair Laird, Vicar at Patrington and Area Dean.

He can be contacted regarding baptisms, weddings and funerals 01964 630 327 or message the All Saints' Roos Facebook page.
